

CELEBRATING 100 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE IN ORTHOPAEDICS

The summer issue of Los Angeles Orthopaedic Hospital's newsletter, "Motion," is hot off the press. Sample selected articles or read the entire newsletter, online now at our website.

A DAY IN THE LIFE: MAURICIO SILVA, M.D.

Thursdays are surgery days for Dr. Mauricio Silva. Although every day holds its own promise of healing, each one is different. Dr. Silva shares what one Thursday looked like for him and his patients.

Adapted from a speech made by Mauricio Silva, M.D., associate medical director, LAOH and medical director, Urgent Care.

Read more.

JENNA MCKINNEY'S WINDOW OF OPPORTUNITY

"I play a fair amount of sports," says Jenna McKinney, "especially soccer." Although the words are casual, Jenna's eyes light up when she says them. Soccer is clearly a passion for this young woman. That's why, when Jenna was diagnosed with scoliosis at age 12, she and her family wanted a treatment that would preserve her active lifestyle.

To learn more about how Los Angeles Orthopaedic Hospital makes a difference in the life of a child, click here.

Read more.

PREPARING TO SERVE MY COUNTRY: An Interview with Nathan Frost, M.D.

Each year, Los Angeles Orthopaedic Hospital is home to two highly qualified postgraduate fellows in a year-long training program. One of this year's fellows is Nathan Frost, M.D., who will fill a teaching role at Madigan Army Medical Center upon completion of his fellowship.

Read more.

Editor: Judy Faulkner, Associate Director of Development
Photo Credits: Judy Faulkner, Al Lorenzo, Kristen and Mark McKinney